2.6. Auto Sandbox Services.

Auto Sandbox is a service that isolates unknown programs. By default any unknown programs identified as potential malware are executed inside sandbox and then automatically sent to Comodo for malware analysis. If a program is found by Comodo to be malicious it is then added to the CIS malware definitions list. If it found to be safe it is added to CIS safe program list. The next time CIS receives antivirus updates, CIS scans all the programs running inside sandbox. If any program is found to be malicious, sandbox isolates the program and moves it to the quarantine list to protect your computer. Safe programs are removed from sandbox and are no longer executed inside sandbox. To disable Auto Sandbox and/ or automatic submission of programs to Comodo, go to "Sandbox Settings" and uncheck the appropriate boxes.

2.7. Browser Setting Modification

CIS allows users to set the Yahoo search engine as the default setting in the internet browser search engine toolbars and makes <http://www.yahoo.com> as the browser home page. By checking the box during installation, you are consenting to this change. If after installation, you do not want Yahoo as the default, you may make changes under the options section of your internet browser.

2.8. Backup Service. Comodo shall provide you with an interface necessary to use the backup services to make archived copies of data contained on any computer where a valid license was installed.

- (i) When using the backup service and related services, Comodo will save an encrypted copy of each file you designate as requiring storage. The saved files will be transferred over the Internet to a server operated by Comodo or an affiliate or partner of Comodo. Comodo disclaims all liability for the backup service, including any resulting from lost or compromised data.
- (ii) Comodo will routinely scan your computer in order to determine if any file is new, modified, or deleted and to determine what actions need to be taken in order to complete a storage or restoration operations. These operations require Comodo to collect information related to your files, your computer configuration and specification, and your computer usage. You give Comodo permission to access, collect, and store this information. In addition, you give Comodo permission to transmit all files designated by you as requiring storage to a remote data center operated by Comodo or an affiliate or partner of Comodo ("Storage Servers"). Files will be transmitted in an encrypted format.
- (iii) Comodo will not use any files backed up unless 1) you give Comodo permission to do so as part of a request for troubleshooting or computer restoration services, or 2)

Comodo reasonably believes it needs to do so in order to comply with a law, subpoena, warrant, order, or regulation, including laws related to the use of data for illegal purposes or child pornography. The services are being provided from within the United States and other countries where litigants, law enforcement, courts, and other agencies of the government may have the right to access data stored within their jurisdictions upon terms and conditions provided by local law. As such, these entities may gain access to your data as provided under the local law of the jurisdiction.

- (iv) Files marked for storage shall only be added to the Storage Server at the next periodic scan of your computer. Only after a periodic scan will a file be available as part of the data on the Storage Server. Comodo does not maintain a copy of the data backed up to our servers and does not guarantee the information against loss or destruction. In the event that this Agreement is terminated, Comodo may in its sole discretion, without notice to you, and at any time following the date of termination delete or deny access to the backed up data and such data or files will not be available to you. You agree that Comodo and its affiliates may retain (but shall have no obligation to retain) your data for a period after your trial or license has been terminated, expired, or otherwise lapsed, as part of Comodo's marketing to you the opportunity to purchase, renew, or extend a license.

3. Limited Guarantee

- 3.1. Scope. Some versions of the Products that you may purchase include a limited guarantee that is valid for one year from the date of the Product's activation by the original purchaser unless you cancel or do not renew your Product subscription. The guarantee covers the repair of certain damage that could occur to a computer as a result of malware. Each license of the guarantee can cover up to one computer on the same home network, provided that each computer qualifies for guarantee coverage as explained herein. To qualify, a covered computer must have 1) the minimum requirements to install and run the Product, 2) the guarantee activated using the license key provided by Comodo, 3) the correct version of CIS installed on the computer, and 4) a full CIS system, computer, and memory scan run to verify that the computer is free from malware. The guarantee does not apply if a computer 1) is unable to access the Internet, 2) more than one year has lapsed since the date of the Product's activation by the original purchaser, 3) the computer has preexisting malware, 4) does not have CIS installed and operating in the correct functional state. After installing the CIS, you must, on each covered computer, a) keep CIS operating at all times in one of 1) Paranoid Mode, 2) Train with Safe Mode, or 3) Clean PC Mode; and b) have Automatic Sandboxing enabled and configured to sandbox all unknown files; and c) not disable or remove CIS. The guarantee excludes all damage caused by a hardware failure or caused by non-malware software. THE LIMITED GUARANTEE IS ONLY AVAILABLE TO YOU IF YOU ARE A RESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND HAVE PURCHASED A VERSION OF THE SOFTWARE THAT INCLUDES THE GUARANTEE. FREE, TRIAL, OR BETA VERSIONS OF THE SOFTWARE DO NOT INCLUDE THE GUARANTEE. THE LIMITED GUARANTEE CANNOT BE COMBINED WITH ANY OTHER COMODO WARRANTY OR GUARANTEE. THE GUARANTEE IS NON-TRANSFERRABLE, AND CAN ONLY BE USED BY THE ORIGINAL PURCHASER OF THE SOFTWARE. THE GUARANTEE IS ONLY

VALID FOR CLAIMS MADE OVER THE INTERNET AS PER SECTION 3.3 AND ONLY WHERE INTERNET-BASED SUPPORT IS RENDERED.

3.2. Limits. The guarantee is limited to the lesser of

- (i) The actual cost of the computer;
- (ii) An aggregate total of $500 for all claims paid under a single license key, and
- (iii) The actual cost of a Comodo specified and authorized third party provider to repair the computer to an operating condition ("Guarantee Limit").

The guarantee is limited to the repair and restoration of the computer to a state prior to when the malware infected the computer. The guarantee does not cover claims for lost or expected profits, lost or corrupted data, lost or deleted work, or lost or damaged personal files. Comodo does not guarantee against the loss of any file or information. The guarantee is void if you breached this agreement, failed to follow the procedures described in this Section 3, or failed to pay any fees applicable to your use of the Software.

3.3. Claims. If a computer qualifying under Section 3.1 becomes infected with malware you must take the following steps: 1) backup all data on the computer, 2) promptly contact Comodo over the Internet by email at: cisguarantee@comodo.com, and 3) allow a Comodo support representative to remotely connect to the infected computer and remove the malware. Comodo only provides remediation services over the Internet and you must be able to access the Internet to use the limited guarantee. Damage to a computer by anything other than malware is not covered by the limited guarantee. If a Comodo support representative cannot connect to the computer because of the malware, the limited guarantee does not apply. To qualify for a payment under the limited guarantee, you must allow Comodo access to each infected computer and must assist Comodo in any manner necessary to remove the malware and repair the computer. Failure to cooperate with a Comodo representative voids the guarantee. The instructions and steps necessary to fix the computer and provide the support are in the Comodo representative's sole discretion.

3.4. Diagnostic Software. The support representative may download, run, or use software on your computer to remove the malware and restore the computer to its pre-infection operating condition. This software includes software that can control your computer remotely along with Diagnostic Software. You shall accept any license agreement required to use the Diagnostic Software. Use of the Diagnostic Software by the support representative does not require any additional payment by you.

3.5. Recording of Services. Comodo may monitor and record any remediation services provided. Comodo may release recorded information for any of 1) satisfying a law, regulation or government request, 2) operating the remediation services properly, or 3) protecting Comodo's business reputation, software, or customers.

3.6. Payment. If Comodo is able to connect to your computer but is unable to restore a qualifying computer's functionality and remove the malware, Comodo shall, subject to the Guarantee Limits and at sole discretion, pay for Comodo's choice of 1) the cost of having a third party provider repair the computer or 2) for a replacement computer. If Comodo chooses to repair the computer, Comodo will provide instructions on where the computer may be delivered for repair. If the repair facility is greater than 20 miles from your physical location, Comodo shall pay the cost of mail delivery of the computer but you shall pay any applicable shipping insurance costs. You bear all risk of loss during shipping to or from the repair facility. If the repair facility is unable to restore the computer's operating functionality before the end of the fifth business day after the repair facility's receipt of the computer, Comodo shall pay you, subject to the Guarantee Limits, the fair market value of each qualifying irreparable computer.

4. Personal Internet and Identity Coverage. Comodo's personal internet and identity coverage plan ("ID Protection") is offered to customers who are residents of the United States and who register for the services and become a member of the ID Protection policy. However, Comodo's failure to notify will not relieve you from your indemnification obligations except to the extent that the failure to provide timely notice materially prejudices you. You may assume the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding giving rise to an indemnification obligation unless assuming the defense would result in potential conflicting interests as determined by the Indemnified Person in good faith. You may not settle any claim, action, suit or proceeding related to this agreement unless the settlement also includes an unconditional release of all Indemnified Persons from liability.
- 9.3. Additional Liability. Your indemnification obligations are not Comodo's sole remedy for a breach and are in addition to any other remedies Comodo may have against you under this agreement. Your indemnification obligations survive the termination of this agreement.

You must periodically visit Comodo's website to be aware of any changes. Continued use of a Product after an amendment constitutes your acceptance of the change.
- 12.4. Waiver. A party's failure to enforce a provision of this agreement does not waive the party's right to enforce the same provision later or right to enforce any other provision of this agreement. To be effective, all waivers must be both in writing and signed by the party benefiting from the waived provision.
- 12.5. Force Majeure and Internet Frailties. Other than for payment obligations by you, neither party will be liable for a delay or failure to perform an obligation to the extent that the delay or failure is caused by an occurrence beyond the party's reasonable control. Each party acknowledges that the operation of the Internet is beyond the other party's reasonable control, and neither party will be liable for a delay or failure caused by an interruption or failure of telecommunication or digital transmission links, Internet slow-downs or failures, or other such transmission failure.

- 12.6. Arbitration and Governing Law. You agree that any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of this agreement shall be determined by binding arbitration. Before you may begin arbitration with respect to a dispute involving any aspect of this Agreement, you shall notify Comodo and any other party to the dispute for the purpose of seeking dispute resolution. The notice to Comodo should be addressed to 1255 Broad Street, Clifton, New Jersey 07013.

If the dispute is not resolved within sixty (60) days after the initial notice, then a party may proceed in accordance with the following: Any unresolved dispute arising under the terms of this Agreement shall be decided by arbitration conducted through the services of the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association (hereinafter referred to as the "AAA"). Notice of demand for an arbitration hearing shall be in writing and properly served upon the parties to this Agreement. Arbitration hearings shall be held in the state of New Jersey at a location mutually agreeable to the parties.

The laws of the state of New Jersey govern the interpretation, construction and enforcement of this agreement and all proceedings arising out of it without regard to any conflicts of laws principles. Both parties agree to the exclusive venue and jurisdiction of state or U.S. federal courts located in New Jersey.

- 12.7. Assignment. You may not assign any of your rights or obligations under this agreement, whether by merger, consolidation, operation of law, or any other manner, without the prior written consent of Comodo. For purposes of this section only, a change in control is deemed an assignment. Any transfer without consent is void. To the extent allowed by law, Comodo may assign its rights and obligations without your consent.
- 12.8. Severability. Any provision held invalid or unenforceable will be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make the provision valid and enforceable. If reformation is not possible, the provision is deemed omitted and the balance of the agreement remains valid and enforceable.
- 12.9. Survival. All provisions relating to confidentiality, proprietary rights, indemnification, and limitations of liability survive the termination of the agreement.
- 12.10. Rights of Third Parties. There are no third party beneficiaries under the agreement.
